MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

Acting Director, Office of External Affairs

STAT

SUBJECT: Invitation to Participate in the Second Annual Seminar of the Center for Law and National Security, University of Virginia School of Law

1. Action Requested: Accept or decline invitation to participate in this seminar sponsored by the Center for Law and National Security of the University of Virginia School of Law, 5-7 November, Boar's Head Inn in Charlottesville, Virginia.

2. Background: Mr. John Norton Moore, Director and Walter L. Brown, Professor of Law at the University of Virginia, has asked you to participate in an upcoming seminar that will be on the subject of the "United States-Soviet Union Relationship: Prospects for the Future." The conference will address the U.S.-Soviet relationship in an historical content. They have planned panels on the Military Balance, Points of Tension, SALT/START, Human Rights, INF/MBFR, and Trade. A copy of the agenda and invited participants is attached. On the agenda, those individuals who have accepted the Law School's invitation are: Lt. Gen. John Pustay, President, National Defense University; Raymond Garthoff, Brookings Institute; Dr. Jeremy Azrael, Senior Advisor for Soviet Affairs, Bureau of Politico-Military Affairs, Department of State; Col. Samuel J. Watson, U.S. START Delegation; and John Rhineland, former Legal Advisor, U.S. SALT Delegation. Mrs. Casey and family members are welcome to attend the conference as well. Mr. Moore anticipates that the audience will consist of other leaders from government, universities, and private law practice.

Since the invitation is to attend as a participant only and not to address the group, you may wish to designate another senior Agency official to represent you such as NIO USSR EE  or Director of Soviet Analysis/DDI
